

HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK POLICY OF KEY

This statement is issued in conformity with Section 2(3) of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 as a statement of the general policy of the Employer with respect to the health and safety at work of the employees of the Employer and of others.

1. Statutory Duty of the Employer

The Employer has a duty to ensure so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare at work of its employees and, in particular to:

- 1.1 Provide and maintain equipment and systems of work that are safe and without risks to health;
- 1.2 Arrange for ensuring safety and absence of risks to health in connection with the use, handling, storage and transport of articles and substances;
- 1.3 Provide such information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to ensure the health and safety at work of the employee;
- 1.4 Maintain any place of work under the Employer's control in a condition that is safe and without risk to health and provide and maintain means of access to and egress from it that are safe and without risk;
- 1.5 Provide and maintain a working environment for the employees that is safe, without risk to health, and adequate as regards facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work.

2. Statutory Duty of the Employees

Every employee has, while at work, the duty to:

- 2.1 Take reasonable care for the health and safety of himself or herself and of other persons who may be affected by his or her acts or omissions at work;
- 2.2 Co-operate with the Employer so far as is necessary to enable any duty or requirement imposed on the Employer or upon any other person by or under any relevant statutory provision to be performed or complied with.
- 2.3 Every employee has a duty to report faults or defects in the facilities or equipment that they are using. This should be done in duplicate using the forms that are kept with the Accident book. One copy to remain with the Accident book, the other to be given to the trustees.

3. Policy Statement

It is the policy of the Employer to promote the health and safety at work of the staff and of all visitors to the premises of the Employer and to that intent to:

- 3.1 Take all reasonably practicable steps to safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the staff and of volunteers.
- 3.2 Provide adequate working conditions for employees with proper facilities to safeguard their health and safety and to ensure that any work which is undertaken produces no unnecessary risk to health or safety.
- 3.3 Encourage employees to co-operate with the Employer in all safety matters in the identification of hazards which may exist and in the reporting of any condition which may appear dangerous or unsatisfactory.
- 3.4 Encourage each employee to accept his or her own responsibility not to endanger himself or herself or others and actively to assist in fulfilling the requirements and spirit of the legislation.

4. Health and Safety Rules

All employees must exercise ordinary care to avoid accidents in their activities at work and comply with the following general rules and any specific rules which the Employer may publish from time to time.

- i. Accident Book

Any injury suffered by an employee however slight, (even a bumped head or a slight cut or graze) in the course of his or her employment, must be recorded together with such other particulars as are a requirement by statutory regulations in the accident book maintained by the Employer.
- ii. Fire Procedures

All employees must familiarise themselves with fire escape routes and procedures and follow the directions of the Employer in relation to fire.
- iii. Equipment and Appliances

No equipment or appliance may be used other than as provided by or specifically authorised by or on behalf of the Employer and any directions for the use of such must be followed precisely.
- iv. Safety Clearways

Corridors and doorways must be kept free of obstructions and properly lit.
- v. Maintenance

Defective equipment, furniture and structures must be reported as such without delay.
- vi. Hygiene and Waste Disposal

Facilities for the disposal of waste materials must be kept in a clean and hygienic condition. Waste must be disposed of in an appropriate manner and in accordance with any special instructions relating to the material concerned.

vii. Drink and Drugs

The use of intoxicants at your place of work is forbidden. No employee may undertake his or her duties if under the influence of drink or drugs, except in the case of drugs when he or she is under medical supervision.

viii. Working at height

Working at any height is actively discouraged. If it is regarded as necessary in a particular situation, it must be subject to a proportionate risk assessment. It should be limited to 6 feet off the ground and only step ladders that are suitable and safe should be used.
